

JOURNALIST

Name: Jadenne Radoc Cabahug (jay-dEEen rah-DOCK ka-ba-hug) e-mail: jadenne.cabahug@gmail.com
Telephone: +1 425 394 9402
Portfolio LinkedIn

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCES

Reporter - Cascade PBS | January 2024 - May 2025

Reporter writing in depth, magazine style politics and general news stories in Seattle and Washington state. Occasionally rotating to different teams to learn various skills like social media, TV scriptwriting and shooting, podcast and audio editing. Emerging Journalist News Fellow from Jan 2024 - Dec 2024 and a part-time reporter in 2025.

News Reporting Intern - The Japan Times | June - August 2023

Reported on national and regional international affair stories in Tokyo for English language newspaper through a foreign reporting scholarship. Part of Asia-Pacific defense editorial team. Used knowledge of Japanese language, culture and living experience to pitch and write stories.

Legislative Staff Reporter - The Seattle Times | January - March 2023

Worked full-time for The Seattle Times as part of the UW Olympia Legislative Reporting Program. Wrote stories about bills, lawmakers and their impacts at the city and state level and worked with the legislative reporting team to produce content during the 2023 legislative session.

News Reporter - International Examiner | March - June 2022

City beat reporting for Seattle's Chinatown International District. Covered issues about and for the Asian and Asian American communities in the city and the Pacific Northwest region. Reported in English and Tagalog.

Breaking News Editorial Intern - Factual | March - July 2022

Monitored international breaking social media news feeds like Twitter, Facebook and Telegram to write AP-style breaking news alerts on the Factual app and Twitter. Verified real-time events through social media and local media sources and officials. Knowledge of global time zones, world politics and international media news sources.

Reporter - The Daily at the University of Washington | 2021 - June 2023

Student journalist covering news about the university community. Launched an investigation on a partnership involving DIY-at-home rape kits sold to student organization, prompting cease and desist letter from the state attorney general and law prohibiting the sale and distribution of such kits.

Producer - National Public Radio KUOW 94.9 FM Seattle Now | June - September 2021

Entry-level journalism and production work for a daily news podcast show. Produced daily headline stories, one podcast episode, spots and wraps for various KUOW shows. Worked collaboratively and conducted prep-research for upcoming news segments.

Environmental Reporting Fellow - Seattle Globalist | 2019 - 2020

Worked collaboratively and individually to write investigative articles on environmental health issues in Seattle and Washington state.

Student Journalist - National Public Radio KUOW 94.9 FM RadioActive Youth Media 2018 - 2022

Youth media producer, advanced producer, mentor, social media lead and outreach assistant. Created podcasts, feature stories and spot stories for radio and website using audio mixing software like Adobe Audition and Audacity. Designed informational news social media posts.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Arts in Communication: Journalism and Public Interest Communication

University of Washington 2020 - 2023

Cum Laude (3.93/4.0), double minor in International Studies, French Language, Literature, and Culture.

Language, culture and history study abroad program in Paris, France in 2022.

International Journalism Scholarship recipient in Tokyo, Japan in 2023.

Member of the Filipino American Student Association and the UW chapter of Society of Professional Journalists.

Associate's Degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences, General Studies and Humanities Green River Community College

2018 - 2020

Attended Green River College and Kentridge High School simultaneously through the Running Start Program, which allows high school juniors and seniors to attain an Associate's degree and High School Diploma simultaneously.

Kentridge High School

2016 - 2020

Graduated top 12% of 2020 class. Member of volunteer clubs National Honor Society and Key club, studied French for four years.

REFERENCES

Donna Blankinship, News Editor at Cascade PBS: donna.blankinship@cascadepbs.org +1 (206) 276-6702

John Tomasic, Professor at the University of Washington: tomasic@uw.edu +1 (360) 910-5920

Caley Cook, Professor at the University of Washington: ckcook@uw.edu +1 (760) 415-2644

SKILLS

Languages: English (native C2), Tagalog (native C1), French (B1), Japanese (A2)

Areas of expertise: Voicing, interviewing, scripting for radio, news writing for web, radio, online digital, social media, breaking news, investigative journalism, use of social media for news verification like Twitter Boolean search knowledge, audio mixing using Adobe Audition and Audacity, data and research analysis, city and state government reporting, AP style, able to work collaboratively or individually, natural disaster coverage, able to work in high-pressure situations

ACHIEVEMENTS

2023 UW International Reporting Scholarship Recipient

The Seattle Times/Blethen Family Communications School Minority Scholarship recipient 2021-2022

Asian American Journalist Association (AAJA) Student Excellence in Audio Storyteller National Winner

Three-time AAJA Northwest Journalist of Color 2020, 2022, 2023

2021 Second place in Society of Professional Journalists regional awards Audio: Feature, Hard News category

Runner up finalist in the New York Times Third Annual Podcast Contest