

JENNA RAMISCAL

San Diego, CA

jramiscal5328@sdsu.edu

619-502-1831

linkedin.com/in/jennaramiscal

jennaramiscal.com

SUMMARY

I'm a fourth-year at San Diego State University where I'm double majoring in journalism and Asian American studies. I have experience in written and multimedia journalism. I'm passionate about community-centered reporting and am particularly interested in covering the AAPI community. I'm eager to contribute to a news organization where I can further develop my reporting skills.

SKILLS

- News & feature writing
- AP style
- Deadline management
- Adobe Creative Suite
- Fact-checking & research
- Media law & ethics
- WordPress
- Multimedia production
- Short form videos

WORK EXPERIENCE

Daylight San Diego | Intern

June 2026 - Present

Cover the local events beat by producing one story per week about a community-led event or action. Capture photos and videos at the event. Consistently meet a 24-hour deadline requirement for stories. Design the social media carousel post for each weekly story. Write content for weekly round up newsletters about either local events or immigration news.

SDSU | The Daily Aztec Managing Editor

May 2026 - Present

Manage daily operations alongside EIC and visual director by leading 16 editors. Copy edit across written sections before publication ensuring accuracy and adherence to AP style. Streamline communication between written and visual sections for efficient workflow. Mediate internal staff conflicts and coordinate with external agencies for publication.

inewssource | Audience Engagement Intern

January 2026 - May 2026

Collaborated with reporters and editors to produce social media posts and short form videos across platforms (Instagram, X, BlueSky, Facebook). Assisted with research and fact-checking process for campaigns and investigative pieces. Produced stories through multiple mediums including broadcast, radio and web.

SDSU | Asian American Journalists Association President

April 2025 - May 2026

Advocated for Asian American representation in mass media by uplifting student voices and connecting them with industry professionals from the community. Hosted bi-monthly meetings that featured Asian American journalist guest speakers. Delegated tasks to a five member board, while actively communicating with members and university advisors.

Voice of San Diego | Intern Reporter

September 2025 - December 2025

Attended public meetings, requested public documents and communicated with government officials to report on local affairs. Synthesized news from outside organizations to contribute weekly to the Morning Report newsletter. Assisted reporters with investigative stories by reviewing meeting agendas and board letters, interviewing public meeting attendees and calling sources to verify information.

EdSource | Student Journalism Corps Reporter

January 2025 - May 2025

Published a feature story on undocumented student experiences in collaboration with seven other interns to amplify underrepresented student voices. Attended editorial meetings five hours per week to communicate with team of 13 other interns and an editor. Weekly, the other five hours were spent conducting research, interviewing, drafting or peer-editing.

EDUCATION

San Diego State University | San Diego, CA

August 2023 - Present

- Bachelor of Arts, Journalism & Bachelor of Arts, Asian American Studies | GPA: 4.00 | Diploma expected 2027

San Diego School of Creative and Performing Arts | San Diego, CA

August 2016 - June 2023

- Creative Writing Major | GPA: 4.63 | Graduated in June 2023 as Valedictorian