

CHRIS CASQUEJO

Washington, DC | chris.casquejo@gmail.com | (586) 944-1513 | linkedin.com/in/chriscasquejo

International Correspondent | U.S. Policy & Global Affairs Analyst | Broadcast Journalist

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

International correspondent covering U.S. policy and global affairs for audiences worldwide. Delivered reporting to 300M+ viewers. Translates complex geopolitical developments into clear, compelling journalism.

CORE SKILLS

U.S.–China Relations | Indo-Pacific Affairs | Live Anchoring | White House & Capitol Hill Coverage | International Broadcasting | Broadcast & Digital Production | Editorial Strategy | Interviewing

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

On-Air Analyst | Independent Journalist

Washington, DC | 2025 – Present

- Deliver live analysis on U.S. policy and global developments for Arirang (South Korea) and PTV (Philippines)
- Explain elections, trade, and foreign policy for international audiences across the Indo-Pacific
- Partner with producers to shape coverage for regional relevance and audience engagement

Voice of America (VOA) — Program Host & International Correspondent

Washington, DC | 2021 – 2025

- Anchored and produced VOA Asia Weekly, reaching 300M+ viewers across broadcast and digital platforms
- Reported from the White House and Capitol Hill, breaking down U.S. policy developments for international audiences
- Built VOA's first live reporting partnership with Fiji's national broadcaster, establishing a recurring monthly segment following 2024 election coverage
- Covered the Biden–Xi summit at the 2023 APEC meetings, delivering reporting to partner stations across five Indo-Pacific countries
- Reported on semiconductor policy and supply chains, explaining implications for U.S.–China competition and global markets
- Interviewed senior policymakers, diplomats, and business leaders on geopolitics and economic policy
- Contributed to digital content strategy, adapting broadcast coverage for online platforms to expand audience reach

Full-Time Family Caregiver

Michigan | 2017 – 2021

- Provided full-time care for an elderly disabled family member, managing medical and daily living needs

SEIU 775 — Senior Media Relations Specialist

Seattle, WA | 2015 – 2017

- Led communications for a statewide long-term care policy campaign resulting in passage of the nation's first public long-term care insurance program
- Secured sustained media coverage through targeted messaging and strategic press outreach
- Developed speeches, op-eds, and campaign materials shaping the public narrative on long-term care

CGTN America — Correspondent

Seattle, WA | 2013 – 2015

- Led Pacific Northwest coverage for an audience of 100+ countries, reporting on regional economic, corporate, and policy developments
- Covered major U.S. companies including Amazon, Boeing, Microsoft, and Starbucks, linking corporate strategy to policy and global markets
- Delivered live coverage of breaking news, U.S. politics, and major regional developments

Broadcast Reporter (Various Outlets)

U.S. | 1996 – 2013

- Reported on business, politics, and local news across multiple markets
- Built live reporting, interviewing, and production expertise over 17 years

EDUCATION

Northwestern University, Medill School of Journalism — Bachelor of Science in Journalism